

Safety Alert

LV-Mounted Flashing/Revolving Amber Lights

Incident Description

An employee was recently pulled-over by a regional Queensland police officer and was fined for traveling on a public road with a revolving amber light mounted on a Light Vehicle (LV) without a permit. The light was switched off at the time.

A loss of points is also possible, along with potential repercussions from your site management.

Recommendations (QLD Sites)

1. As of March 6th 2008, all Queensland-based Klinge LVs with permanently mounted amber revolving/flashing lights for use on the mine site MUST obtain written letter of authority for having the light, from the designated Mine Site Manager.
2. If you do not have or do not wish to obtain a letter of authority ensure that your (magnetic base) light is removed from the vehicle prior to traveling on a public road.
3. Regardless of which state you are in, please ensure that your light is switched off prior to traveling on a public road.
4. Review the below attachment and complete acknowledgement forms.

Attachment: Guideline making reference to the Transport Operations Regulation 1999.

Guideline for the installation of flashing

Eliminate All Unsafe Acts.

Davin Faux, Manager – Global Risk & Business Improvement,

294/08 Safety Alert 62 LV Mounted Amber Flashing Lights.doc

‘Klinge Safe Tyres Produce More & Last Longer’

The information provided on this website is intended for information only and of bringing the existence of potential problems to your attention and to advise you of solutions which we have adopted. We do not warrant that any solutions that we have adopted are infallible, nor do we recommend that you adopt same. If you are concerned about a potential problem and wish to implement a solution, then we recommend you carry out your own research and testing. Expert advice should be obtained before adopting any solution that we have adopted to ensure that such a solution is appropriate and suitable to your needs. Any information provided on this web site is not intended to create any sort of legal relationship between Klinge & Co Pty Ltd and you, nor is it intended that you will rely upon it without obtaining proper professional advice. Klinge & Co Pty Ltd will not be responsible for any loss and damage occasioned, including but not limited to damages for personal injuries or loss of business or other profits, by any person relying on information contained in this website. Klinge & Co does not guarantee that the information on the web site is accurate, reliable, definitive, complete or up to date. Klinge Group may claim legal privilege and common interest privilege in relation to this material.